

PRICE ONE CENT

SHOT BY DANIEL DOHERTY.

COL. GEO. M. GRAHAM FATALLY WOUNDED IN LONDON BY A NEW YORKER.

The Shooting Grew Out of a Discussion Over a Gambling Debt, Which Doherty Refused to Pay, on the Ground that the Play was not Fair—Col. Graham's Record in Rochester Not Very Good.

LONDON, NOV. 22.—Dan Doherty, of New York, shot Col. George M. Graham, of Rochester, N. Y., last night, inflicting a probably fatal wound. Doherty is under arrest.

The shooting grew out of a discussion over a gambling debt. Graham, it is said, told Doherty that a certain sum won from Doherty by a Mr. Howard, of New York, ought to be paid, as it was a debt of honor. Doherty had refused to pay.

Doherty had refused to pay it on the ground that the play was not fair. He became angry at Graham's remark, and shot him.

ROCHESTER, Nov. 22.—Graham, mentioned in a London dispatch as having been shot by Doherty, kept a gambling-house here several years ago. He was a quiet, but determined man, and though seldom in a row, generally got the best of those that he was forced into.

Doherty was arraigned in Bow street, to-day, charged with shooting with intent to

THEY WERE NOT BURGLARS.

One Hundred and Fifty of Inspector Williams's Friends Give Him a Surprise.

Inspector Williams made a friendly call with his wife, on Monday night and feeling tired, started for home at 9 o'clock. When he reached the St. Dennis Hotel his wife ex-

The Inspector reached his home at No. 105 East Tenth street, about 10 o'clock, when he saw a policeman and three strangers lurking in the shade of a gaslight opposite to his house. He called the officer, who informed him that he had driven a rough-looking fellow from his stoop, as the man was standing there and peeping through the parlor shutters. The rooms were dark, and visions of burglars danced through the Inspector's brain. He rang the bell, was admitted and started on a search. Suddenly the gas was lighted and Inspector Williams and his wife were greeted by one hundred and fifty gentlemen and ladies who had come from the

The rooms were filled with floral offerings of all designs and more in number than could be put in a bath room, and in the dining room was a sumptuous repast. A band of music added to the joyousness of the occasion, and dancing and merriment were kept

Of course, the policeman on post, the mysterious stranger on the stoop and the "bouncing" of the man were part of the programme to make the visit a complete surprise.

DETECTIVES GUARD CHAMBERLAIN.
Four Pinkerton Men Protecting the States man from England.
 [SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.]
 WASHINGTON, NOV. 22.—The English repre sentatives on the Fishery Commission especially Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, accompanied to this city by a squad of Pinkerton detectives, four in number. A friend of Mr. Chamberlain states that the distinguished Englishman does not fear any violence. Nevertheless the British minister has

At night one of the detectives guards his sleeping apartments. When he goes to his meals, which he invariably insists shall be served in the public dining room, the Pink-ton agents occupy seats at the adjoining table until he has finished. They are always armed, and when he goes out for walk or drive they are always near him. When in his private apartments all called upon Mr. Chamberlain or any of his part

Wolf Aldermen Knocked Out, as Usual.
Judge Barrett to-day, in Supreme Court, Chambers, denied the motion for a peremptory ma-

damus, made on behalf of the Wolf, or Crown ian, Board of Aldermen, to compel the present lathers and County Clerk Plack to recognize them as the Board of County Canvassers. The Judge does not think it necessary to give reasons and he also imposes upon the Wolf Aldermen of proceeding. This dispute has been brought Collector of Shirts.

Mrs. King, proprietress of an employment agency at 272 Sixth avenue, is on trial before Mayor Hewitt on a charge of fraud. A dozen complain stein says he paid her $10 for a position as collector. When he obtained the job he discovered that she was to collect dirty shirts for a laundry. Mr. King makes a general denial of the charge and also says that she refunds money to those who do not get employment.

Triumphant Woman Suffragists.
The Woman Suffrage Central Club met at Eleventh street, last night. Mrs. Kate Palm Stevens presided. It was announced that the Wisconsin courts have decided that women can legally vote at local elections; that forty-

Mrs. Wilkinson Jailed for Assault.
Anna Wilkinson, of 241 Monroe street, whose husband, James, was shot by the Italian, Marian Labor Men in Search of Harmony.

The leaders of the labor parties are endeavoring

The leaders of the labor parties are expected to bring about a meeting of representative men to organize a party that will harmonize all the factions for the next Presidential campaign. A conference of committees is likely to be held this week.

August Schultz, of 81 East Third street, made great racket in his own neighborhood very early this morning by firing off a pistol. Policeman McKinney arrested him, and at the Essex Market Court he was held in $200 for trial as a nuisance.

The Old Fire Laddies' Ball.
William Brandon, John F. Waydell and Bernard F. Martin have been appointed a committee to make arrangements for the annual ball of the Volunteer Firemen's Association.

It Kills All Comfort

when Catarrh has you in his clutches. WOLOCOOT CATARRH ANNIHILATOR is the standard remedy.